

Joe Buckshon

Senior Managing Consultant
PFM Group Consulting LLC

Joe Buckshon (he/him) joined PFM in 2020 as a senior analyst based in the firm's Philadelphia office. He primarily supports the firm's Center for Budget Equity & Innovation, Economic & Real Estate Consulting and tax policy practices. In 2021, he served as co-lead for the PFM cohort of the Bloomberg Philanthropies & Results for America City Budgeting for Equity & Recovery program, where PFM provided technical assistance to 11 cities with a range of equity and budget challenges. This included supporting the Cities of West Palm Beach, Florida and Lincoln, Nebraska with development of a small- and minority-owned business loan programs. In addition, he has supported PFM's Economic & Real Estate Consulting practice on a variety of projects, such as an economic impact analysis for a large-scale mixed-used development in Vero Beach, Florida. Prior to joining PFM, Joe served as a Policy and Performance Fellow in the City of Philadelphia's Department of Commerce where he co-led a working group to design the Quality Jobs Tax Grant program alongside Commerce Department, City Council and other Administration stakeholders. He has provided project management and analysis support to dozens of consulting engagements over the past decade. Joe holds a Master of Public Administration from the University of Pennsylvania's Fels Institute of Government and a B.A. in Economics and Spanish from Temple University.
