

Fred Dilly

Senior Managing Consultant
PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Fred Dilly joined PFM in 2020 and currently works out of the San Francisco office. Fred provides technical and quantitative support to municipal entities in the Western U.S. focusing on public utilities, transportation agencies, and state and local governments. Fred provides municipal advisory services to clients of all sizes, ranging from initial issuers to some of the largest utilities and transportation entities in the nation.

At PFM, Fred has supported the development and execution of a variety of financings and short-term financing programs – including new money and refunding bond issues, Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act and State Revolving Fund loans, tender-exchanges, private placements, commercial paper programs and revolving credit agreements.

In addition to his issuance experience, Fred specializes in creating sophisticated planning models to assist his clients in the financial planning process.
