

Lieke Janssen

Senior Managing Consultant
PFM Group Consulting LLC

Lieke Janssen is a senior managing consultant in PFM's Center for Justice & Safety Finance and PFM's multi-year financial planning practice. She designs and executes financial and operational modeling tools to help local government leaders make data-driven decisions.

Lieke has supported various local government clients in multi-year financial planning engagements and workload-based staffing analyses, using quantitative analysis and strategic collaboration as guiding principles.

Prior to joining PFM, Lieke was the Director of Finance in a North Carolina town where she managed all aspects of financial operations. She holds a BA from Radboud University and an MPA from UNC Charlotte.
